

PRESENT PERFECT TENSE GRAMMAR STORY

Meet Emily. She has always loved books. Over the years, she read countless novels, but there's one book she never read—a mystery novel she received as a gift on her 12th birthday.

Last week, Emily decided it was finally time to read that book. She searched her bookshelf and, to her surprise, discovered the long-forgotten gift. She hasn't opened it yet, but she plans to read it this weekend.

In her life, Emily has visited many libraries and has collected a wide range of books. She has read classics, fantasy, and non-fiction. Emily believes that books have enriched her life in countless ways.

Answer the questions below.

What book did Emily receive on her 12th birthday?

When did Emily decide to read the mystery novel?

Where did she find the book?

Has Emily already opened the book?

What types of books has Emily read in her life?

PRESENT PERFECT TENSE GRAMMAR STORY

Meet Carlos. He has always been fascinated by languages. Over the years, he studied several languages, but there's one language he never learned—Mandarin Chinese.

Recently, Carlos decided it was finally time to learn Mandarin. He enrolled in a language course and attended every class. So far, he has completed the beginner's course and has even practiced with native speakers.

Throughout his life, Carlos has visited various countries, and he has experienced different cultures. He believes that learning languages has opened doors to new opportunities and connections.

Answer the questions below.

What language did Carlos decide to learn?

How has Carlos learned Mandarin?

Has Carlos finished the beginner's course?

What has Carlos done to practice Mandarin?

Where has Carlos traveled during his life?
