

PAST PERFECT TENSE GRAMMAR STORY

Meet Sarah. She had always dreamt of visiting Paris. Last year, her dream finally came true. She had saved up for years to make this trip possible.

Before going to Paris, Sarah had researched all the famous landmarks, and she had learned a few basic French phrases. When she arrived in Paris, she had already planned her entire itinerary.

One of the highlights of her trip was visiting the Eiffel Tower. By the time she got there, she had already seen many beautiful places in the city. She had taken countless photos.

When Sarah returned home, she had collected wonderful memories and experiences. She knew that her dream had been realized.

Answer the questions below.

What had Sarah always dreamt of?

When did Sarah's dream come true?

What had Sarah done before going to Paris?

What had Sarah learned before arriving in Paris?

What had Sarah seen and done in Paris before visiting the Eiffel Tower?

PAST PERFECT TENSE GRAMMAR STORY

Amy and David had known each other since they were in kindergarten. They had grown up in the same neighborhood and had always played together.

When they were in high school, Amy had moved to a different city with her family. David had missed her a lot. He had written letters to her every month, and she had replied with long emails.

Years later, Amy had returned to their hometown. They hadn't seen each other in a long time, but they had stayed in touch. When they reunited, it felt like no time had passed at all. They had cherished their friendship.

Answer the questions below.

How long had Amy and David known each other?

Where had Amy moved when they were in high school?

What had David done to stay in touch with Amy?

How long had it been since they last saw each other?

How did it feel when they reunited?

What had they done to cherish their friendship?
